DIRECTIONS

Respecting the manner in which Entries may be made in the Enumeration Schedule.

After "City or Borough" write the name, if the District is in a City or Borough; if not, draw a line through these words, or through whichever of the two the District does not belong to. After "Parish or Township" write the name; if there is no Township in the Parish, draw a line through "Township"; if it is a Township, with the name of the Township, and draw a line through "Parish". If it is Extra-Parochial, draw a line through "Parish or Township", and write "Extra-Parochial" over these words, and after it the name.

In the column headed "Place," write the name of the house (if it has a name), or of the street or other part of the town, or of the village, hamlet, or extra-parochial place in which it stands, opposite to the mark denoting each house, etc., the first house in the street, &c., and write "do." opposite to every other in the same street, &c.

Houses.—Insert houses uninhabited or building in the number shown in the Example, writing "1 U" or "1 B" as the case may be in the proper column, opposite to the inhabited house to which each stands nearest. Every house which is unoccupied at the time of your visit and is believed not to have been slept in the night before, may be inserted as uninhabited. New houses, not yet inhabited, may be inserted as "Building". Where there is a row of such houses the total number may be indicated before the letter "B" instead of the separate insertion of each.

By "Houses" is meant Dwelling-Houses; and every building in which any person habitually sleeps must be considered as a dwelling-house; but buildings, such as churches or warehouses, or any others, which were never used or intended to be used as dwelling-houses, may not be inserted.

"Names of each Person who abode therein the preceding night."—Insert, without distinction of rank, every living person who abode at such place during the last twelve months. Leave no blank space between the names, but enter each name in full, so that the handwriting may be legible; so that each page may contain 20. Set down one after the other those who have the same name, connecting them with the heads of the family, and put no others between them. As long as the census is the same do not repeat, but write "John Williams," or "John Williams," write down "John Williams,"

When the person is a Peer or Peeress, the title may be written instead of the name. The words "Lord," "Lady," "Sir," "Madam," "Hon." may be put before the names of those to whom they belong.

If, as may happen in a lodging-house or inn, a person who slept there the night before, has gone away, and

At the end of the names of each family draw a line thus / as in the Example. At the end of the names of the "Age and Sex."—Write the age of each person opposite to the name in one of the two columns headed "Males" and "Females" according to the sex.

"Males" and "Females," according to the sex.

Thus—for Persons aged 16 years and under 20 write 15
 20 years and under 24 write 20
 24 years and under 30 write 25
 30 years and under 36 write 30
 36 years and under 40 write 35
 40 years and under 45 write 40
 45 years and under 50 write 45
 50 years and under 55 write 50
 55 years and under 60 write 55
 60 years and under 65 write 60
 65 years and under 70 write 65
 70 years and under 75 write 70
 and so on up to the greatest age.

"Profession, Trade, Employment, or of Independent Means."—Men, widowers, or single men; having no dependents or children; but living on their wages may be listed as independent; while, for example, a widow, with two children, would be listed as dependent.

The professors, &c., of wives, or of sons or daughters living with their husbands or parents, and visiting them.

All persons serving in Her Majesty's Land service as officers or privates in the Line, Cavalry, Engineers, or Artillery may be entered as "Army," without any statement of their rank; soldiers of "H.M.P." for His Maj. Pow. and "P." for Peasants.

All persons belonging to Her Majesty's Sea service, including Marines, may be referred to as "Navy," adding "R.P." for Royal Navy, and "S.A." for Princess.

All domestic servants may be entered as "M.S." for Male Servant, or "F.S." for Female Servant, without the name of their particular duties, as chamber maid, gardener, housekeeper, cook, &c., &c.

Inserit all the professions, trades, or employments, as they are described by the parson, or by others on their behalf, for Journeymen, "J." for Apprentices, and "A." for Servants, after the statement of the trade of those who are still Master. Do not be inserit; every one will be so consider'd who is not enter'd as Journeymen or Apprentices.

This may be saved by writing the following words, shortly thus, "M." for Mean/science, "n." for Mistry,
"C." for Chemistry, "E." for Electronics, "A." for Accounts, which may be added according to the subject.

Rank, or any such term as "Esq." or "Gentleman," must not be entered in this column.

"Where born.—Walter is the same County."—Write opposite to each name (except those of Irish, Scotch or Frenchmen), "Y" or "N," for Yes or No, as the case may be.

Persons born in Scotland, Ireland, or Foreign Parts.—Write to this column, "S." for those who were born in Scotland; "I." for those born in Ireland; and "F." for Foreigners. This latter mark is to be used only for those who are subjects of some Foreign State, and not for British subjects who happen to have been born abroad.

Enter the Totals at the bottom of each page as in the Example, and enter and add up all the Totals in the summary in the last page. This may be done at home, and must be written with ink.

INTRODUCTION

THE first British census as we know it was in 1801, the result of years of campaigning by a young government statistician called John Rickman. He was convinced that the country, facing the threat of Napoleonic invasion, urgently needed to know exactly how many men were available for conscription into the army or navy in the event of war, and where they were. He finally won the backing of the Prime Minister, Pitt the Younger, and in 1800 his Census Act (its full title was An Act for taking Account of the Population of Great Britain, and of the Increase or Diminution Thereof) passed successfully through Parliament.

Rickman was put in charge of carrying out the first census, and the next three that followed in 1811, 1821 and 1831. They were very limited operations, not much more than headcounts, and contained very little personal information. Sadly, none of them survive (though even if they did they wouldn't be much use to us).

Rickman died in 1840, just before the next census was due. The General Register Office took over and decided it would like to know not just how many people lived where, but also what they were called, how old they were, where they had been born, and how they made a living. (A pity that it didn't ask how people in each household were related to each other: that came a decade later).

The country was divided into registration districts and further divided into sub-districts overseen by officials known as enumerators, often local schoolmasters appointed because they were thought to be literate, numerate, and therefore best-fitted to carry out the work.

They in turn appointed collectors whose job was to visit every dwelling the morning after census day and pick up forms that had been distributed earlier for completion by the household heads. These they returned to the enumerator, who copied the details

SORTING OUT THE ABRVTNS

Much of it is straightforward, and it explains some of the mysterious abbreviations you might come across when searching through the records. MS, for example, means manservant, FS female servant. Others include Ag Lab - Agricultural labourer, Ap - Apprentice, C - Clerk, F - Foreigner, I - Irish, Ind - Living on independent means, J - Journeyman, M - Manufacturer, m - maker (as in shoe-m.), P - pensioner (army or navy), S - Scots and Sh - Shopman.

No titles were to be recorded – “Rank, or any such term as ‘Esq’ or ‘Gentleman’ must not be entered”, say the directions sternly – except those of the upper classes: “Where the person is a Peer or Peeress the title may be written instead of the name. The words ‘Lord’, ‘Lady’, ‘Sir’, ‘Rt Hon’ and ‘Hon’ may be put before the names of those to whom they belong.”

into enumeration books which were sent to the government for compilation into the nationwide survey.

It worked reasonably well, but there were some difficulties. Ages of people up to 15 were supposed to be recorded precisely, but those older than that had their age rounded down to the nearest five years, so anyone aged 49 was listed as 45, 64-year-olds were said to be 60, and so on. Quite a few people were missed off the lists. Some were simply not at home, some were on night work, some were travelling, some on holiday. Crews on ships and inland waterway vessels were omitted. There was a common misbelief that unbaptised infants need not be recorded.

Some parents with large families kept children secret to avoid accusations of over-crowding, and other children were said to be older than they were to escape investigation into under-age employment.

The age of consent in 1841 was 21, and there must have been some people under that age who pretended to be older than they were so that they could enter into legal contracts, such as renting a home. And some women must have been tempted, then as now, to knock a few years off their public age.

The truth about some relationships was hidden, too. There were couples living together but unmarried (though it was not anything like as common as today) and this was sometimes disguised on the census forms by describing the female partner as a servant or housekeeper.

Illegitimate children were not unknown, and although the 1841 census did not ask about parenthood, the 1851 one did. To avoid public shame, such children were sometimes described as nephews or nieces, or as the offspring of the unmarried mother's

SOMEWHERE IN THE VILLAGE...

FEW enumerators tried to identify individual houses, merely recording them as 'village' and listing them in whatever order they came to hand, which makes it very difficult today to trace their footsteps round a village. It wasn't entirely their fault.

Although house numbering had been introduced in some areas in the 18th century, it had yet to reach places like Barningham (it still hasn't), and in 1841 only a handful of dwellings in the village, usually the grander houses, had names. The only ones recorded that year were The Hall, The Rectory and 'Hayforth' – presumably the farm now known as Haythwaite. All the rest were just noted as being 'village'.

It was not until the back end of the 19th century that ordinary people started to name the places in which they lived, and even in 1901 32 of the village's 52 recorded dwellings were still anonymous.

The 20 named were The Hall, The Rectory, Bragg House, Crooks House, East Wood, Fair View, Heath House, Heathwaite, Hill Side, Mill Hill, Moor Cock, Moor Lea, Park View, Manor House, Sanders House, South View, Wesley Cottage, Wilson House, the Black Horse Inn and the Milbank Arms.

parents, skipping a generation.

By no means all householders could fill in the form, truthfully or otherwise, for the simple reason that they could not read or write. Some did their best, but caused enumerators great problems when they tried to decipher what had been written. Others passed the task to a child who went to school and was more literate than its parents, but was not always able to fully understand what was required of them.

Yet others left it to the collector to fill in when he arrived, which led to misunderstandings, mis-hearings, mis-spellings and other errors. And after all those problems, not everyone knew the answers to what they were being asked, especially their place or exact year of birth, and just made the best guess they could.

Even if the form was properly completed, mistakes arose when it came to be copied into the official lists by the enumerators. Not all of these were as conscientious as they should have been, and some cut corners – for example, by entering a birthplace for the first entry on a page and then simply writing ‘ditto’ for all other entries below.

However, despite all the problems, omissions and mistakes, the census records remain an invaluable and fascinating source of information. We hope that the compilation of this A-Z record will be useful to anyone seeking to trace ancestors in our part of Teesdale.

We have done our best to ensure that the details here are accurate, but inevitably there will be some errors or omissions. If you have any amendments or further information, please let us know and we’ll correct it for future editions.

THE SHRINKING VILLAGE

Barningham Village Green at the end of the 19th Century

THERE were 84 households in the Barningham census area in 1841, occupying 77 separate buildings, and the village had a total population of 337.

Seventy years later, in 1911, the number of homes had shrunk to 52 and the population had dropped by a third to 234.

Most of the decline in the number of dwellings took place in the 1870s, when a dozen homes vanished, many of them merged to make bigger houses but some – including a couple of outlying farmsteads – falling into permanent disuse.

The biggest drop in the population also took place in the mid-Victorian years. The number of males fell from 141 in 1861 to 99 in 1911, reflecting, perhaps, the need for fewer farm workers as agricultural machinery was introduced and the parallel lure of factory work in the towns. The number of females in the village went down, too: there were 173 in 1851, 106 in 1891. The trend reversed at the start of the 20th century, which could have been the result of an increasing demand for domestic servants.

Birth rates fell in Barningham during this period, as elsewhere: families of ten or twelve were not uncommon in the mid-1800s; by 1911 only two families were recorded with more than six children.

- The census area, based on the parish boundaries, comprised Barningham village itself and outlying farms including Crooks House, Wilson House, Saunders House, Eastwood, Moorcock, Haythwaite, Bragg House and the now-vanished Cow Close, Wood Top and Green Gill House.
- The figures below exclude scholars at the Academy boarding school, almost all of whom were boys (as many as 24 in 1871).

READING THE LISTS

ENTRIES are listed by surname, census year, census record number on the original census records (except for 1881, when it is the number that appears on the Family History Resource files CD list, and for some of the Scargill and Hope records, when it is as numbered in the BLHG transcripts), abode on census day (house names are given where known; otherwise dwellings are identified by family head's surname), first name, age and marital status, then (in brackets) relationship to household head, occupation and birthplace. Other household members with different surnames are shown preceded by a + sign, and are also listed separately.

ABBREVIATIONS:

a acres, agr lab agricultural labourer, appr apprentice, asst assistant, Barn Barningham, bil brother-in-law, bro brother, dil daughter-in-law, dtr daughter, f father, fil father-in-law, gdtr granddaughter, gson grandson, ind of independent means, j journeyman, m mother, md married, mil mother-in-law, n niece, s son, sil sister-in-law, sis sister, Sc Scot, svt servant, u unmarried, w wife, wid widow(er), Yks born in Yorkshire, xYks not born in Yorkshire.

^ indicates year of death if known, as shown in the Barningham burials registers. Some of these are assumptions, based on ages given in census records, and their accuracy cannot be guaranteed.

indicates a Barningham census record number, ## one from Scargill or Hope.

EXAMPLE:

NIGHTMAN	1881 #94 Nightman (Midden Cottage): Abraham 41 m (scavenger Bowes ^1883) Isabella 39 m (w Barn) Albert 7 (s Bowes) Mary 5 (dtr Barn) + Martha Haggard 64 (mil lodger) Agnes Knghtley 16 (svt) 1891 #17 Nightman (Marsh Top): Isabella 49 wid Mary 15 1891 #9 Brown (Far End Farm): Albert 17 u (agr lab)
NIGHTMAN	1891 #33 Nightman2 (Bull Close): James 22 m (farmer 52a Gilmonby) Margaret 21 m (w Cockfield) Ella 2m (dtr Barn) 1901 #27 Nightman2 (Bull Close): James 32 Margaret 21 Ella 12 John 9 (s Barn)

In 1881 Abraham Nightman, 41, married, a scavenger born in Bowes, was living at Midden Cottage, numbered 94 in the Barningham census records, with his wife Isabella (39, born in Barningham), their two children Albert, 7, and Mary, 5, his mother-in-law Martha Haggard, and a servant girl called Agnes Knightley.

The birthplaces of the two youngsters suggest that the family moved to the village from Bowes around 1875. Abraham is recorded as having died in 1883. As well as being noted here, Martha and Agnes are listed separately, and more details about them can be found by looking them up under Haggard and Knightley: by doing so you may find that they have appeared in earlier censuses, and you can trace back their families.

In 1891 Abraham's widow was living at Marsh Top with Mary; her mother had presumably died, though there's no burial record. Albert, meanwhile, was unmarried and working as a farmhand for a family called Brown at Far End Farm, listed No 9 in the Scargill census. More details about them can be found by looking them up on the list.

A second family called Nightman had arrived: James from Gilmonby, farming 52 acres at Bull Close, his Cockfield-born wife Margaret, and their two-month-old daughter Ella.

In 1901, there was no record of the first family, who had presumably left the area, but the second one remained with the addition of a son called John.

NEXT?

If you want to see the original census records, Barningham Local History Group has print-outs of almost all the pages covered in this booklet, and they can be seen on request. We also have the whole UK census for 1881 on disc, which can be searched to find details of anyone recorded at that time.

There are many websites offering you the opportunity to look at transcriptions of census records. Most charge for doing so, either through an annual subscription or on a pay-as-you-search basis. A few allow you to do a basic name check free, charging only for more detailed information or the chance to view original pages.

Websites we have found particularly useful when compiling this booklet include:

Two useful guides to searching the Internet for family history are The Genealogist's Internet by Peter Christian (published by the National Archives, 4th edition 2009) and Family History on the Net by Colin Waters (Countryside Books, 2nd edition 2009). The local history group has copies of both which members can borrow.

FIRST TO LAST

IT would have been very useful if the census enumerator had listed dwellings in some kind of geographical order, so that we could tell exactly who lived where. Instead they seem to have been recorded in the order the individual returns ended up on his desk, and this depended largely on what route the collectors took as they made their way round the Barningham area picking up completed forms.

Some appear to have begun at the east end of the village and worked their way up the green, crossing back and forth; others began with the outlying farms and worked their way back. To confuse things further, if nobody was at home the first time they called, they went back later and the form went to the back of the pile.

If you want to try sorting it all out, here are lists showing the order in which households were recorded, with household head's surname, occupation and house name if available (not often).

Remember that many houses we know today were once divided into two or more smaller dwellings, some have been demolished, and several have been built since the first censuses were taken.
