Mighty Hike

Hi everyone. My son Callum and I, along with our friend Faye, are once again taking on a 26-mile Mighty Hike challenge to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support. I know first hand the amazing support this charity provides, having lost my husband, Aaron, to cancer in 2020. Macmillan were there to support Aaron and our family, and we want to help ensure that they can be there to support anyone and everyone who encounters this horrible disease. Every penny we raise goes directly to Macmillan to fund their valuable services, so please consider donating to this very worthwhile cause – big or small, it all helps! Please visit our Just Giving page for more information – www.justgiving.com/fundraising/teesdaletrekkers2023

If you would like to make a cash donation, collections are being taken in the shop at Coghlan's or you can pop it through the door of Shaw House in Barningham. Many thanks for reading this.

Wetheriggs Jumble Sale –

Great Balls of Wool!

The day before the jumble sale was to take place, I was approached by a neighbour in Whorlton (Alan Statham) who wanted to find a good home for all the wool his wife had accumulated, because unfortunately she was now unable to knit. Most of the wool was still in unopened packs and of very good quality Jaeger. Thinking there would possibly be a sack full I anticipated walking round to their house to collect it, but was told I would need my car. There was so much it filled the whole car from floor to roof. I contacted the organisers of the jumble sale but because the Barningham hall was full to capacity I had to sell the wool outside from my boot. As they closed the hall early owing to the weather I only managed to make £32 to put towards their takings. That afternoon I took the remainder of the wool to a friend (Glen Howard) who ran a few knitting groups in Barnard Castle and two weeks later she informed me she had sold almost every ball of wool and had made £110 which was donated to Wetheriggs.

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH: PayPal scams are scams carried out through fake emails or links to a fake PayPal site that asks you to enter personal payment details. Scammers often use social engineering tactics to persuade users to click fake PayPal links and enter their credit card details or send them money. Generally, PayPal is a safe online payment system, because end-to-end encryption and two-factor authentication secure transactions. PayPal sends emails only for payment notifications, receipts, and promotional purposes. Any emails that PayPal does send out will address you by name, rather than an impersonal address like "Dear User." The primary email address for PayPal is paypal@mail.paypal.com, and this is the address that's usually used to send account statements and notifications of changes. PayPal sends receipts using service@paypal.com. The email address paypal.me is also a legitimate domain.

Ring Them Bells...

Ding – the church bell rings for celebration, disaster or hope.

Dong – it is heard through the trees, over the roof tops and out to the fields.

Ding-dong it rings as the bellringer pulls and eases the rope.

Slowly and pausing, sadness and mourning, quickly and joyfully, different moods it leads.

Cast centuries, years ago; rung for the earliest name on the oldest gravestone –

That soul redeemed, the body, dust and ashes.

With God's blessing and the Holy Spirit, we aren't alone.

Ding-dong, ding-dong: time into history passes

Noise of this modern World hushed inside these thick stone walls and heavy closed church door.

Kneel, bow your head, thank God for your life – life is for the living.

Live it up, ring that church bell joyfully more and more

And, if you have done wrong along the way – well, God is forgiving.

Ding – ding – ding – ding – DING DONG.

Doug Anderson, Barningham

Crowning Glory

Barningham celebrated the coronation with a grand marquee set alongside our Village Hall. The event was well attended and much enjoyed by the villagers. A delicious lunch was had with the savoury food kindly provided by Coghlan's, with wonderful handmade cakes provided by talented bakers in the village. Our newest resident Rachel Drew from the Yews was a worthy winner in the cake competition, congratulations Rachel.

A massive thank you to everyone who helped put this wonderful event together for us all to enjoy, you know who you are, a truly lovely time was had by all.

Whorlton Open Gardens – Sun 25th Jun (from 1.30pm to 5.00pm). Entrance £5 (under 10s free). Come and see a dozen beautiful gardens and enjoy some tea and cake. All proceeds to support the Village Hall. Donations can be delivered to the Village Hall from 10pm on the day and will be gratefully received.

Whorlton Village is grateful to The Flyer for the kind donation of £250, which was used to pay for a much-needed refurbishment of the Victoria Jubilee Fountain. The work was done to coincide with the Coronation of HM King Charles III.

The Whorlton Village Community Association runs the Village Hall and a series of events throughout the year, serving the Parish of Whorlton and Westwick and beyond. It can only do this through the work of a dedicated team of volunteers and Committee members. There is now an urgent need to recruit more members to continue the work of the Association.
