Not that I'm a big oil consumer... but I'd like to think that the current madness in the Middle East reaches some dénouement and that the pronouncements are not just more hot air. Meanwhile, talking of air movement, the end of the first consultation period (23:59 on Tuesday 30 June) for Hope Moor wind farm is approaching and it is your chance to comment (for and against) on the information shared to date. LETTERS

Hedgehog Advice

At the June meeting of the Yorkshire Countrywomen's Association we had 18 members and 3 visitors to hear the ladies from PEPPERFIELD HEDGHOGS RESCUE near Darlington, explaining their dedicated work in saving this now declining species. It was a very interesting talk, and they said that hedgehogs are nocturnal but sometimes come out during the day to get food for their young. She advised that if we find one to feed it on dried chicken, cat food, not bread and milk, which is poisonous to them.

Party Thanks

The Ravensworth School Friends would like to say a massive thank you to everyone who supported our 'Party in the Barn' on 16th May. We are thrilled to announce that the evening raised an incredible £2,280 for Ravensworth C of E School!

Special thanks to Malcolm and Bernadette Tenant for hosting, Larch Barn for the catering, and Empty Glass and The Exploding Buddhas for the fantastic music. We also extend our gratitude to the many local businesses and individuals who donated generous raffle prizes.

This fabulous total will go directly toward enhancing the educational experiences of all our pupils. Thank you for making it a night to remember!

Tackling Invasive Himalayan Balsam

Want to get involved in some fun outdoor work to help our local environment? Join our friendly volunteer group for 2-hour sessions to "bash the balsam", which has spread along many of our local watercourses.

Volunteer activities are now taking place in Dalton, Newsham, Ravensworth and Gilling West (becks flowing to the River Swale) as well as Gill and Hope Becks near Barningham (becks flowing to the Greta and River Tees). The work is being supported by the Yorkshire Dales and Tees Rivers Trusts.

Mary Reid returns to Wycliffe Church

On her previous visits to Wycliffe, Mary has left the audience spellbound with her playing of the harp. This year, she will be accompanied on the flute by Matthew Howells, who is also a distinguished musician in his own right. Concerts with Mary in the past have been a sell out and we have had to turn people away! Tickets, to include excellent interval refreshments, are £20 and we would advise early booking. For tickets/info contact Keith Miller: m: 07778 318503 or e:kshmillier32@gmail.com
